DARK PLACES

I've been overanxious
Thinking 'bout the world we live in
'Cause at any moment
We could lose the people we love or just fuck it all up

There's a grey cloud hanging
Right above my head, nobody addresses it but you
Bring an umbrella and build a shelter for me

You don't make me feel bad for feeling bad
You don't say I should be grateful for all I have
When the lights go out and I'm all alone
You don't hesitate, you just hold me close
You meet me at my dark places
Yeah, you meet me at my dark places

I try to keep from drowning
Replay it over and over again
You know I hate the silence
Whenever you leave me read

And now I'm try'na face it but it's easy to see
It's so hard to love when you're somebody like me, oh
I'll meet you at your dark places

But you don't make me feel bad for feeling bad
You don't say I should be grateful for all I have
When the lights go out and I'm all alone
You don't hesitate, you just hold me close
You meet me at my dark places
Yeah, you meet me at my dark places

You make me feel enough
'Cause you keep showing up
You make me feel enough
'Cause you're not giving up
And I don't know a lot
But I know this is love

'Cause you don't make me feel bad for feeling bad
You don't say I should be grateful for all I have
When the lights go out and I'm all alone
You don't hesitate, you just hold me close

You meet me at my dark places
Yeah, you meet me at my dark places
Oh you meet me at my dark places
You meet me at my dark places
