

ANNOY ME

2min:40sec

written by SHN

I used to hate it when you'd clean up my messes
And I'd go crazy when you leave your spoon
Inside that jar of yoghurt I had saved for breakfast
I used to hate it when you sang out of tune

But now when I look into the fridge
I notice something's missing
I guess I have to admit
That I miss it

So come back, annoy me
It's kinda lonely without you
I know I said that I didn't need you
But I do
'Cause I miss the way you laugh
When you knew it would make me laugh
too
So come back, annoy me
It's kinda lonely without you

I used to hate it when you'd ask me so many questions
Of which I'd never have the answers to But now it's me who's doing all the asking
And all the answers end with you

So come back, annoy me
It's kinda lonely without you
I know I said that I didn't need you
But I do
'Cause I miss the way you laugh
When you knew it would make me laugh
So come back, annoy me
It's kinda lonely without you
