

BAGGAGE

3min:01sec

written by SHN

My heart's heavy
Caught in the middle
Fighting my parents' fights
And it still scares me
'Cause in a couple of months
I'll be someone's wife

And I don't know if I'm just paranoid or
Maybe I can't think over the noise of Screaming from the kitchen
It's funny, I still listen
And I don't think you know it 'cause I never let it show but

It's not easy, going in with
The fear of what we might become
'Cause believe me, they believed in
Each other as though they're 'the one'
And I don't want to get caught up in the end that I get too afraid to even begin
But it's not easy, going in when
I see them coming undone

It's like a thread that You don't want to pick, but you know that you're gonna
And it's statistics
1 in 3, end up in misery

And I don't know if I'm just paranoid or
Maybe I can't think over the noise of Screaming from the bedroom
They've been at it since the afternoon
And I don't think you know it 'cause I never
let it show but

It's not easy, going in with
The fear of what we might become
'Cause believe me, they believed in
Each other as though they're 'the one'
And I don't want to get caught up in the
end that I get too afraid to even begin
But it's not easy, going in when
I see them coming undone

I'm afraid I might take with me
My father's pride, my mother's insecurities
And I know that you know
That it's just how it goes
People come with baggage
Well they did too, and now they've had it

It's not easy, going in with
The fear of what we might become
'Cause believe me, they believed in
Each other as though they're 'the one'
And I don't want to get caught up in the
end that I get too afraid to even begin
But it's not easy, going in when
I see them coming undone
